

Let me ask 2 things of you, and I'll never ever bother you again:

1) You say you pray, even though you feel the way you do, that is ok. However, will you pray to the Lord that Ashly & I reunite and heal as well as rekindle a father daughter relationship.

2) Ask that girl you relay messages through to Ashly if she will contact me either through phone or email.

Sorry,

Thank you for everything in our history of time.

I'll always be here for both you and Tommy if you ever need or want anything. I'll now say goodbye and never bother you again.

I wish the best for y'all in every aspect. In my own way of understanding, I have never stopped loving you or Ashly!

I kept my thoughts on the LORD all the way here through all the challenges and then like Peter I got distracted by the waves (obstacles) and I began to sink just like Peter and yet was saved. I'm sorry LORD and thank you so much for all you do for me and have done and will do, In Jesus name, AMEN!

vacation side was good, but the time with Ashly was excellent.

I hate I have to leave and leave her again

Look at the positive part.
