I can not share any pictures of Zoe, they are very private & protective of themselves and will honor that, sorry!

That's perfectly fine. Their wishes should be honored.

Do you know what happened with Ashly and Luke? Why did they get divorced? Please, don't say it was because of her mouth, takes two to have arguments?

I have told you repeatedly!

I dont want to talk about HER!!!!

I am asking for last time keep me out of anything Ashly!!!

As for your question

The only thing I know is they lived with his parents, he lost his job at cheese fa tory. He would never get another job and got hooked on playing games .

I ask the lord for her to be saved before she dies .

She is a atheist!

We all have our own lifes now .

And I just really dont care to hear about her.

And I hope you can respect my feelings.

I left messages for Ashly on TikTok, but she does not see to get on there anymore, she hasn't posted in over a year and I had a brief conversation with her, but she didn't know it was me and said she was having relationship issues.

Ok will send message.
Gotta get ready for work ttyl

We, Patty & I are going too.

Before I leave any last opinions on whether or not to go to the police.

She mentioned to me in a message on TikTok not knowing it was me, that she was in a toxic relationship and that's why she has not been on TikTok for over a year, then she moves, something is going on.

I had a brief conversation with an attorney in Australia about getting visitation rights to talk to Zoe. I have to be able to verify that I am Ashly's father that is why I am going to Richmond to the Department of Vital Records. Once I get all the information I need I'm suppose to contact him back to continue the conversation to see where we go.

He thinks I won't have a problem because of The Family Law Act of 1975 along with there being A Grandparent Alienation situation where I have not seen her in 15 years when she was just born, my age and health conditions and that I'm only requesting to see by video chat and not in person since Ashly has safety concerns (Really?!).

Beverly

Has Ashly ever mentioned to you anything about her health?

Just she had the weight surgery

Ok, I know about that myself.

Do you remember saying to me a few time she has issues, mental issues?

Yes

You cant see that yourself?

She has ADHD and I've been reading & studying about it, maybe if you have the slightest interest in knowing about her consider read up on ADHD.

I know what adhd is .

Zoe was diagnose also and something

Beverly

Zoe was diagnosed also and something else that is linked to autism

I guess she got it from you

Why would you say that?

Because you are her father

And you are not her mother?

I don't have any issues.

You and her are just alike .
Everyone says that

Yes very much so, but after being with her and listening to hear her she has a lot of you in her too

Okay
