

Nonchalant is an adjective that means feeling or appearing relaxed, calm, and unconcerned. A nonchalant person shows no worry, fear, or intense excitement, often acting as if they do not care. You can check more details on the Merriam-Webster Nonchalant Definition.

Key Details

- Pronunciation: non-shuh-lahnt (or non-shuh-luhnt)
- Synonyms: Casual, calm, cool, indifferent, unconcerned
- Antonyms: Worried, anxious, excited, nervous

Examples in Sentences

- She looked completely nonchalant while waiting for her turn on stage.
- He was surprisingly nonchalant about losing his keys.